

Sammamish Rowing Association New Boathouse Timeline

- 1997: SRA moves into old boathouse
- 2000-2005: alternative locations considered for new boathouse
- 2005: Marymoor Park site is selected, first shoreline permit awarded
- 2005-2010: permitting process, with numerous setbacks and challenges
- Summer 2010: building permit is finally awarded
- Winter 2010-2011: basic foundation dug and shaped, utilities laid in, path to boathouse widened and straightened, improvements made to parking lot, decision made to switch from wood-frame to metal-frame building (saving of hundreds of thousands of dollars)
- Summer 2011: West Lake Sammamish Parkway widened, turn lane put in
- September 2011: metal building ordered
- November 2011: foundation poured
- January 2012: metal building delivered
- February 2012: foundation poured for elevator shaft, construction of steel building begun
- March 2012: wood framing of interior spaces (walls, creating two floors, various rooms) begins; installation of exterior doors and walls begins
- June 2012: concrete floor poured
- Summer 2012: boat bay garage doors installed
- Fall 2012: exterior frame complete, siding installation underway
- December 2012: electricity hooked up
- March 2013: boat racks delivered
- Spring 2013: construction of exterior shell complete; roof, walls, siding, windows, exterior doors, electricity, natural gas, and running water all in
- Summer 2013: construction on ground-floor interior begins, including insulation, electrical, ventilation, plumbing.
- August 2013: boat racks installed
- September 2013: boats moved from old boathouse into new building; old boathouse refurbished to serve as “workout barn” until new boathouse gym is complete; “first grand opening” to celebrate opening of boat bays
- Summer 2014: first-ever bathroom approved for use
- March 2015: new gym opened, old boathouse demolished
- May 2015: new storage shed built for gas and launch supplies
- Fall 2015: construction of offices, coaches’ lounge, multipurpose room, bathrooms, locker rooms begins
- December 2015: interior stairs finished
- April 2016: move in to offices, begin using bathrooms and locker rooms
- June 2016: old office trailer hauled away
- Summer 2016: trophy cabinet, meeting room kitchen, landscaping, main-entry trellis, engraved-brick patio, donor wall finished
- September 2016: boathouse complete, new name unveiled, official Grand Opening celebration